WHC promotes personal agency and believes that all people should be empowered to take care of their mental, emotional, sexual, physical and spiritual health and wellbeing. We offer sexual, reproductive, and mental health care and support for people of all genders. Our organizational values guide our work through an anti-racist, anti-oppressive, intersectional, feminist, harm reduction lens.

Position Summary:

The Program Manager, Provincial Eating Disorder and Recovery Program & General Counselling Position Description is primarily responsible for day-to-day management of PEDPRP and Counseling Programs at WHC, this includes human resources, program development, scheduling oversight, financial accountability, quality and innovation. They participate in and lead program and organizational initiatives, committees, and functions, manage the PEDPRP and Counseling Program Teams, and work in close partnership with other department managers to support the interdisciplinary teams in the department. The Program Manager works with the Leadership team to align programs and services with client needs, integrate services within and outside WHC and encourage cross organization teamwork and collaboration.

Candidates must meet these requirements

- Minimum of 3 years' experience managing community-based programs in a unionized environment, preferably in a community, healthcare facility or hospital; including experience in community development.
- Working with teams in an interdisciplinary and diverse workplace; commitment to principles of anti-oppression and intersectional feminist leadership.
- Experience in using a healing centered, harm reduction oriented and anti-oppression framework to deliver services
- Vision for an unsettling process for WHC programs
- Understanding of the role of settler colonialism on the health and wellness of Indigenous people and clear practice changes that they have implemented to address colonialism and anti-Indigenous racism in the non-profit sector.
- Superior organizational skills and capacity to manage multiple projects at the same time.
- Thorough knowledge of community programs and resources.
- Knowledge of human resource management and budget management.
- Acute sense of communication, people skills and leadership.
- Superior analytical and problem-solving skills.
- Degree at a Bachelor's level in related discipline, or acceptable combination of education and experience.
- Proficient knowledge of Microsoft Office.
- Must be legally able to work in Canada
- Satisfactory Criminal Record check, Adult Abuse Registry check and Child Abuse Registry check.

We thank all applicants for their interest; however, we will only contact candidates we wish to interview.

We use an inclusive definition of "women" and welcome Two-Spirit, genderqueer, trans and non-binary people to Women's Health Clinic. For more information on our programs and who we serve, visit www.womenshealthclinic.org/whoweserve.*
